

Three companies control 25% of the daily news circulated in the entire world...and we are considering reducing restrictions on media consolidation? Such changes cannot be for the public good and are motivated by those in power wishing to achieve greater power.

As we consider the increases in corporate censorship that the changes would bring about, let us keep in mind the words of Lowry Mays of Clear Channel Inc.: "We're not in the business of providing news and information. We're simply in the business of selling our customers' products."
